

SAVE THE DATE

April 22-28, 2012 is Crime Victims' Rights Week

Crime Victims' Rights Week Ceremony

April 26, 2012

12-1 p.m.

Missouri State Capitol

Crime Victims' Rights
Poster Contest
Open to all
college/university students,
victims of crime &
the general public

Opportunity for counseling, social work, psychology, sociology and criminal justice students to:

- Learn about crime victim rights
- Tour the Missouri State Capitol
- Earn extra credit and/or Honor Society projects

Poster contest entries may include painting, drawing, poetry, photography, or any other artistic expression of victim rights. Additional details and contest guidelines are enclosed. All entries must be submitted to the Missouri Crime Victim Services Unit by March 26, 2012.

Questions? Contact Lindsey Williams with the Missouri Crime Victim Services Unit at 573-522-3778 or lindsey.williams@dps.mo.gov.

Left: 2011 CVRW Ceremony at the Missouri State Capitol.
Below: Gov. Jay Nixon speaks at the 2011 CVRW ceremony.

“Extending the Vision: Reaching Every Victim”