A SUMMARY OF YOUR RIGHTS

You do not have to participate in the criminal justice system or receive a forensic examination in order to retain the rights provided by the Sexual Assault Survivors' Bill of Rights and other relevant law.

Missouri law protects the rights of survivors. The rights of crime victims are contained in the Bill of Rights in the Missouri Constitution, art. I, § 32. Victims of dangerous felonies and domestic assault also receive rights. § 595.209, RSMo 2016.

In addition to these rights, as a sexual assault survivor you have the following rights:

General rights:

- Reasonable protection from the defendant and persons acting on behalf of the defendant.
- To be free from intimidation, harassment and abuse.

Before, during, and after an interview:

- To consult with an employee or volunteer of a crisis center (sometimes called an “advocate”) during any interview by a law enforcement official, prosecutor, or defense attorney, unless this person cannot arrive promptly. The interviewer will contact the advocate for you before starting the interview.
- To have your lawyer present during an interview by a law enforcement officer.
- To have a support person of your choice present during any interview by a law enforcement officer, prosecutor, or defense attorney. If the interviewer determines that - having the support person present would hurt the interviewer, the support person may be asked to leave.

- To be interviewed by a law enforcement officer of the gender of your choice. If a law enforcement officer of that gender is not reasonably available, you may not be interviewed by an available law enforcement officer unless you agree.

Before, during, and after a forensic examination:

- To consult with an advocate before and during a forensic examination.
- To have a support person of your choice present.
- To delay the exam if a victim advocate cannot arrive soon, and to be informed of what it means to delay the exam.
- To receive an examination at no charge, paid for by the Missouri Department of Public Safety.
- To shower at no cost after an examination, unless showering facilities are not reasonably available.
- To prompt analysis of sexual assault forensic evidence.
- Evidence collected from your forensic sexual assault examination shall not be used to prosecute you for misdemeanor crimes or search for further evidence of any unrelated misdemeanor crimes, including misdemeanor drug offenses under chapter 579 of the Missouri Revised Statutes.
- To be informed, upon your request, of the results of the analysis of your sexual assault forensic evidence. You may receive this information through a secure and confidential message in writing from the crime laboratory.

No law enforcement official, prosecutor, or defense attorney may discourage you from receiving a forensic examination for any reason.

NOTES

IF YOU ARE RECEIVING A FORENSIC EXAMINATION

To be presented by a medical provider prior to examination.

If you do not understand something, please let me know. I will help explain it to you. If I cannot explain it, I will ask someone to explain it to you.

We have been told that you may have been hurt. Because of this, we are preparing to conduct a forensic examination. This exam may find evidence about your injuries. If we find evidence, that may help us identify and prosecute someone who has hurt you.

Here are a few things you should know:

- This test is free to you. It is paid for by the Missouri Department of Public Safety.
- Before the test, you have the right to meet with an employee or volunteer from a crisis center who works with people who have been hurt like you. If you want to meet with this person, please let me know. I will contact someone to come help you. Your meeting with this person will happen privately.

If an employee or volunteer of a crisis center cannot be here soon, then you may choose not to participate in the exam today. You may be examined at another time. You may also choose not to be examined at all. These are important choices. There may be evidence that the exam will find that will not be there if the exam happens later. Without this evidence, it may be harder to identify or prosecute someone who has hurt you.
- You have the right to have someone here to support you. You may choose that person.

STATE REGULATIONS

The Code of State Regulations (also called the “CSR”), 11 CSR 30-12, provides procedures for the Department of Public Safety to pay for sexual assault forensic examinations with available funds.

The CSR contains the regulations of all Missouri state agencies, including the Department of Public Safety and the Department of Health and Senior Services. The Missouri Secretary of State publishes the CSR. You may access the CSR at <https://www.sos.mo.gov/adrules/csr/csr>.

ENTENDER SUS DERECHOS

Missouri tiene el compromiso de proteger los derechos de las sobrevivientes de agresión sexual. Missouri también se compromete a informar a los sobrevivientes sobre los recursos que pueden ayudarlos a buscar justicia y curación.

No es necesario que participe en el sistema de justicia penal ni se someta a un examen forense para conservar los derechos previstos en la Declaración de Derechos de los Sobrevivientes de Agresión Sexual y otras leyes pertinentes.

La ley de Missouri requiere que un sobreviviente sea informado de los derechos del sobreviviente antes de un examen forense por parte de un proveedor médico, o antes de una entrevista con un oficial de la ley, fiscal o abogado defensor. Si esto se aplica a usted, complete la página de reconocimiento al final y devuélvala a la persona que le presentó el documento.

NOTES

IF THIS IS YOUR INITIAL INTERACTION WITH LAW ENFORCEMENT

To be presented by a law enforcement official upon initial interaction with a survivor.

If you do not understand something, please let me know. I will help explain it to you. If I cannot explain it, I will ask someone to explain it to you.

Here are a few things you should know about your rights:

- Your rights are provided by law. You do not have to participate in the criminal justice system to keep these rights. You also do not have to receive a forensic examination to keep these rights.
- There are law enforcement protections for sexual assault survivors. You may receive an order of protection from a court. This order directs someone to not abuse, stalk, sexually assault, or harass someone else. If someone violates one of these orders, it may be a crime. An order of protection is valid in every state.

There is no fee to ask for an order of protection. You do not need a lawyer to get an order of protection. You must request an order of protection from a court in the correct county. A judge will then decide whether to grant an order.

There are two types of orders of protection: "Ex parte" or "full." An ex parte order is temporary and remains effective until a hearing. A court may grant a full order after a hearing. It is valid for between 180 days and one year.

- (d) Instructions for requesting the results of the analysis of the survivor's sexual assault forensic evidence; and
 - (e) State and federal compensation funds for medical and other costs associated with the sexual assault and any municipal, state, or federal right to restitution for survivors in the event of a criminal trial;
 - (13) A law enforcement official shall, upon written request by a survivor, furnish within fourteen days of receiving such request a free, complete, and unaltered copy of all law enforcement reports concerning the sexual assault, regardless of whether the report has been closed by the law enforcement agency;
 - (14) A prosecuting attorney shall, upon written request by a survivor, provide:
 - (a) Timely notice of any pretrial disposition of the case;
 - (b) Timely notice of the final disposition of the case, including the conviction, sentence, and place and time of incarceration;
 - (c) Timely notice of a convicted defendant's location, including whenever the defendant receives a temporary, provisional, or final release from custody, escapes from custody, is moved from a secure facility to a less secure facility, or reenters custody; and
 - (d) A convicted defendant's information on a sex offender registry, if any;
 - (15) In either a civil or criminal case relating to the sexual assault, a survivor has the right to be reasonably protected from the defendant and persons acting on behalf of the defendant, as provided under section 595.209 and Article I, Section 32 of the Missouri Constitution;
 - (16) A survivor has the right to be free from intimidation, harassment, and abuse, as provided under section 595.209 and Article I, Section 32 of the Missouri Constitution;
 - (17) A survivor shall not be required to submit to a polygraph examination as a prerequisite to filing an accusatory pleading, as provided under 595.223, or to participating in any part of the criminal justice system;
 - (18) A survivor has the right to be heard through a survivor impact statement at any proceeding involving a post arrest release decision, plea, sentencing, post conviction release decision, or any other proceeding where a right of the survivor is at issue, as provided under section 595.229 and Article I, Section 32 of the Missouri Constitution.
3. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean:
- (1) "CODIS", the Federal Bureau of Investigation's Combined DNA Index System that allows the storage and exchange of DNA records submitted by federal, state, and local DNA crime laboratories. The term "CODIS" includes the National DNA Index System administered and operated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation;
 - (2) "Crime", an act committed in this state which, regardless of whether it is adjudicated, involves the application of force or violence or the threat of force

(8) A survivor has the right to be informed, upon the survivor's request, of the results of the analysis of the survivor's sexual assault forensic evidence, whether the analysis yielded a DNA profile, and whether the analysis yielded a DNA match, either to the named perpetrator or to a suspect already in CODIS. The survivor has the right to receive this information through a secure and confidential message in writing from the crime laboratory so that the survivor can call regarding the results;

(9) A defendant or person accused or convicted of a crime against a survivor shall have no standing to object to any failure to comply with this section, and the failure to provide a right or notice to a survivor under this section may not be used by a defendant to seek to have the conviction or sentence set aside;

(10) The failure of a law enforcement agency to take possession of any sexual assault forensic evidence or to submit that evidence for analysis within the time prescribed under section 595.220 does not alter the authority of a law enforcement agency to take possession of that evidence or to submit that evidence to the crime laboratory, and does not alter the authority of the crime laboratory to accept and analyze the evidence or to upload the DNA profile obtained from that evidence into CODIS. The failure to comply with the requirements of this section does not constitute grounds in any criminal or civil proceeding for challenging the validity of a database match or of any database information, and any evidence of that DNA record shall not be excluded by a court on those grounds;

(11) No sexual assault forensic evidence shall be used to prosecute a survivor for any misdemeanor crimes or any misdemeanor crime pursuant to sections 579.015 to 579.185; or as a basis to search for further evidence of any unrelated misdemeanor crimes or any misdemeanor crime pursuant to sections 579.015 to 579.185, that shall have been committed by the survivor, except that sexual assault forensic evidence shall be admissible as evidence in any criminal or civil proceeding against the defendant or person accused;

(12) Upon initial interaction with a survivor, a law enforcement officer shall provide the survivor with a document to be developed by the department of public safety that explains the rights of survivors, pursuant to this section, in clear language that is comprehensible to a person proficient in English at the fifth-grade level, accessible to persons with visual disabilities, and available in all major languages of the state. This document shall include, but is not limited to:

- (a) A clear statement that a survivor is not required to participate in the criminal justice system or to receive a forensic examination in order to retain the rights provided by this section and other relevant law;
- (b) Telephone and internet means of contacting nearby rape crisis centers and employees or volunteers of a rape crisis center;
- (c) Forms of law enforcement protection available to the survivor, including temporary protection orders, and the process to obtain such protection;

The State of Missouri has created forms to request such an order. You may find the forms at www.courts.mo.gov by selecting Court Forms > Adult Abuse Forms. The Circuit Clerk's office will also provide copies of all necessary forms.

- If you wish to receive the result of the analysis of your sexual assault forensic evidence, call the police department listed on the back of this form.
- There are funds available that may help with your costs resulting from this crime. For more information on these services, visit <https://www.dps.mo.gov/cvc/> or call (573) 526-6006. You may also wish to speak to a victim advocate from the prosecutor's office listed on this form.

If you are being interviewed, Missouri law requires that you sign to confirm that you received your rights before the interview starts. Please sign the acknowledgement on page 18.

If you have any questions, please let me know.
