

Job description

Police Officer- job post

City of King City

King City, MO 65757

From $17 an hour - Full-time

We're accepting applications for a full-time officer. The City of King City is a smaller community with a proud history and is seeking a professional well-trained candidate. The duties and responsibilities of a small town Police Officer are much different than those of a larger agency. This should be kept in mind as you complete your job tasks. During your shifts you will have many different duties and will have to handle every type of call for service/incident, from start to finish. Remember this is a small department, which relies on teamwork and community to succeed.

The King City Police Department Offers:

Flexible Hours

A Community which backs Law Enforcement

Plus More!

King City has a K-12 school located within the city limits and two reservoirs on the outskirts of town. Along with gas stations, businesses and food establishments. King City is 30 miles from St. Joseph, 82.6 miles from Kansas City and located on 169 Highway.
