Parkville is a suburban city located in the northwest portion of the Kansas City, Missouri Metropolitan area in Platte County. The City is about 10 minutes south of the Kansas City International Airport and roughly 10 minutes northwest of downtown Kansas City, Missouri. Parkville runs along the banks of the Missouri River for several miles. It is connected by several highways and one interstate. The city is over 15 square miles with multiple growing residential and commercial developments. Parkville is also the home of Park University, the National Golf Club, which has two golf courses, multiple neighborhoods, shopping areas and an historic downtown. As the City continues to experience residential and commercial growth, so does the Police Department.
